

International Society for Justice Research

July 25-28, 2018

Emory University, Atlanta, GA

Call for Papers

Interrogating Injustice

The hosts (Emory University, in conjunction with Georgia State University and University of Georgia) invite paper and poster submissions for the 2018 biennial conference of the International Society for Justice Research. The theme, Interrogating Injustice, will highlight issues related to race and to the distribution of health care resources. Scholars from an array of disciplines whose work touches upon social justice concerns from both basic and applied perspectives are encouraged to submit their research for presentation.

Submission Details

The submission portal opens November 15, 2017. Scholars may submit individual papers, paper symposia including 3-5 papers from individual scholars, or posters. For submission and conference details, see: <http://sociology.emory.edu/isjr2018> or a link at <https://www.isjr.org/>.

Submit your paper, symposia, or poster here.

Deadline EXTENDED to February 21, 2018.

Conference Information

In addition to program sessions, a training workshop for graduate students will be held on July 25. Conference attendees may opt to attend: the gala dinner at the Carter Presidential Center and Library; a tour of the Martin Luther King Center and the Center for Civil and Human Rights; and an evening excursion to Ponce City Market.

Accommodations are available at the Emory Conference Center and in university residence halls.

Registration opens February 1, 2018. For further inquiries, please email isjr2018@emory.edu.